Dear Alex

Clear boundary of old piles of vegetation away for recycling at our yard, remove large elder that is half dead on the corner we looked at. All piles of spoil would be levelled out/moved using a digger in accordance with the ground levels. As we discussed I cant price for the removal of any junk buried under these piles as we cant se what is there, I don't think there will be masses but we cant tell. We would litter pick at the end as there is going to be a lot of rubbish come to the surface.

The area would be left clean & tidy

All allotment holders would need to be made aware that anything left in this area will be removed from site.

Total £1480.00 x Vat
